Statement of Significance

Last updated on - April 18, 2005

Church Statement of Significance: A brick church with cement detailing built in 1876-77 and extended in 1900 by the addition of transepts. The interior is notable for its pinnacled screens, grained timber, and impressive roof, extending over the crossing in the form of intersecting scissor trusses.

Church Classified: 13/05/1982

Revised: 21/06/1984

Group Statement of Significance: An intact group of Wesleyan Methodist buildings comprising a typical church (1876-77) and parsonage (1880-1) and a sabbath school (1893) rather in the manner of a Salvationist hall. The church interior has some distinction.
