Statement of Significance

Last updated on - August 18, 2004

The pair of shops at 103-105 Napier Street St. Arnaud is historically and architecturally significant at a CONTRIBUTORY level. It is associated with commercial developments in St.Arnaud in the interwar years of the 20th century and demonstrates some important design qualities. These qualities include the rendered parapet with cappings and mouldings, the parapet height and proportions of the buildings within the streetscape.
