Statement of Significance

Last updated on - August 24, 2004

The shopfront parapet at 109 Main Street, Stawell, is historically and architecturally significant at a CONTRIBUTORY level. The rendered pedimented parapet, parapet consoles, moulded stringcourse and large rectangular title panel are the 19th century building remnants that contribute to the historical and architectural amenity of the area.

In 2013 a modern roof structure was introduced to this place.
