Veterans Description for Public

The Bendigo Cenotaph (literally meaning 'empty tomb') was built after the First World War and is a half size replica of the London cenotaph designed by Sir Edward Lutyens in 1919. The simple inscription reads "To the Glorious Dead." It stands in the gardens near the fountain.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
