Veterans Description for Public

The Inverloch War Memorial, on the corner of Reilly Street and Bayview Avenue, consists of an obelisk on a squat plinth base, with a marble plaque dedicated to Inverloch's First World War Volunteers. It was originally constructed from beach stones collected by local school children. After the Second World War the obelisk was rendered, as the original mortar had eroded, and a bronze plaque added in memory of those who served in the Second World War.
