Veterans Description for Public

The former site of the Cressy No. 1 RAAF Armament Training School comprised of 450 acres and was compulsorily acquired by the RAAF for £4645. RAAF establishments were built throughout country Victoria during the war. The characteristic buildings from the war era are the P1 type accommodation blocks and Bellman type hangars (timber framed, corrugated iron clad). The school is now completely demolished except for concrete foundations, tarmac, concrete aprons, roads and gutters.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
