

---

Alexandra WWII Cenotaph

Alex 8.jpg

Alex 9.jpg

Alex 10.jpg

---

Location

Leckie Park ALEXANDRA, MURRINDINDI SHIRE

Municipality

MURRINDINDI SHIRE

Level of significance

-

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

---

Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

Located in Leckie Park, the Alexander War Cenotaph is a memorial wall of granite blocks with bronze plaques to commemorate the fallen from the Second World War. It is characterised by a metal plaque and in the centre a Bas-relief sculpture of service men and women, guns and tanks. The Alexandra Cenotaph is situated along side the First World War statue.

Hermes Number 126407

Property Number

---

Physical Description 1

Memorial wall of granite blocks with bronze plaques besides the First World War statue.

Historical Australian Themes

Remembering the fallen

Usage/Former Usage

Commemoration

Veterans Description for Public

Located in Leckie Park, the Alexander War Cenotaph is a memorial wall of granite blocks with bronze plaques to commemorate the fallen of the Second World War. It is characterised by a Bas-relief sculpture of service men and women, guns and tanks. On each side of the wall the names of those who served are listed on bronze plaques. The Alexandra Cenotaph is situated along side the First World War statue.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>