Veterans Description for Public

The Moorabbin WWI Memorial consists of two broken stone pillars and inset stone cross formerly located in the native garden setting of Cheltenham Park. Established in April 1925, the pillars commemorate local residents of Moorabbin and district who served in the First World War. The pillars have since been relocated to the rear of the R.S.L., next to the WWII Memorial.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
