Physical Description 1

A double-fronted gable-roofed timber, unpretentious Californian Bungalow. The major gable fences, with the right bay set forward. In front and left at centre is a flat roofed verandah with exposed rafters supported on timber posts over pylons, with a brick balustrade. Upper gables are timbered. Windows are pairs, the upper sashes of six panes. The roof is unglazed Marseilles terra-cotta tiles. There is a mature tree in the front garden. It is probably a State Savings Bank of Victoria House.

Physical Conditions

Very good. There may be some movement of the verandah.

Intactness

Excellent. The colour scheme is appropriate.
