
St. Peter's Anglican Church War Memorial

Melb 35.jpg

St. Peter's Anglican Church War Memorial.jpg

St. Peter's Anglican Church War Memorial.jpg

Location

Gisborne and Albert Streets MELBOURNE, MELBOURNE CITY

Municipality

MELBOURNE CITY

Level of significance

-

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

Hermes Number 155862

Property Number

Veterans Description for Public

Outside St. Peter's Church, on Gisborne and Albert Streets, is a crucifix monument dedicated to the First World War. The memorial comprises of a bronze crucified Christ mounted on a sandstone platform with the inscription Invictus Pax 1914 - 1918. On the back of the monument the inscription reads, "This wayside crucifix was unveiled on 16 March 1924 by the Governor General and blessed by the Anglican Archbishop of Melbourne. It is a war memorial to honour, in the first instance, the 366 young men and women who went out from this city Anglican Church St. Peter, to serve in the Great War. Through generations it has remained a lovingly tended place of remembrance, devotion and prayer. INVICTUS PAX 'Peace to the unconquered.' 1914-1918."

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>