Physical Description 1

An unusual, two-storey shop and residence of 1878, with some Tudor decorative characteristics. It has a brick commercial oven. Of local architectural significance;

DESCRIPTION : A two-storey, two-bay brick shop and residence, with an unexpressed gabled parapet with some Tudor characteristics. It has a deeply coved gabled capping, flat top and bases with wrought-iron finials. There are diamond brick-panels and window-spandrels, with incised render-decoration. Cills are on brackets. There is an intact timber shopfront, with splayed entry, with glazed doors. The chimney has Classical render-mould. Some interior elements survive, including fireplace and timber ceiling. There is an external brick commercial oven.
