Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

A fine and intact example of an interwar house with Arts & Crafts detailing, notably the shingled canopy above the unusual projecting triangular windows supported on brackets and the over-scaled buttresses to the arched porch. The house is complemented by an original rendered post and pier front fence to the front and side boundaries. The chimney has unusual diamondtile insets.

A Contributory place within the Riverview Estate (Leslie Road) Precinct and part of an intact streetscape of interwar houses (most with original front fences) in Stanley Street.
