Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

A fine and intact example of an interwar house, which is notable for the prominent rafter ends to the verandah that have overscaled lobes in the Japanese style. Other notable details includes the contrasting render walls with diaper pattern bricks and the boxbay window with leadlights.

A Contributory place within the Riverview Estate (Leslie Road) Precinct and part of an intact streetscape of interwar houses (most with original front fences) in Stanley Street.
