Physical Description 1

This is a double-fronted late Edwardian tuckpointed red brick house. The left-hand bay projects forward as a gable. The upper gable is timbered and supported on timber brackets with a terracotta finial. The Marseilles tile roof sweeps down over the verandah. The windows are pairs. Concrete has replaced the verandah floor and tubular steel has replaced the posts.

Comparable to Holy Trinity Vicarage, Church Road; Trinity Lutheran Church Manse, Victoria Street and 18 Yarra street.
