Physical Description 1

107-9 Clarke Street is a well preserved pair of single-fronted, bi-chrome brick cottages which are distinguished by bay windows and hipped roofs with bracketed eaves. The iron palisade fences, ogee profile wing walls with cast cement consoles (unusual in Northcote) are intact. No 107 Clarke Street has retained its verandah iron work and the dentillated fascia is intact on No 109. The friezes below the eaves are panelled and adorned with rosettes.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
