Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

An imposing church in Barrabool sandstone with Oamaru limestone dressings, designed by Reed and Barnes and built in 1875-76, with the addition of second transepts in 1888-89 designed by I.F. Smart. The building, of complex plan, includes a tall tower and broach spire, with a flanking stair turret, nave and aisles, crossing fleche, double transepts and apse. The spacious interior includes cedar fittings and impressive stained glass windows by Ferguson & Urie and others.
