REVISED STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE, CONTEXT, 2010

What is significant?

The entire late 19th/early 20th century one lane timber road trestle bridge and the site to a radius of 30 metres.

How is it significant?

The bridge is historically significant to the Shire of Nillumbik.

Why is it significant?

The bridge is historically significant as a good example of the large timber trestle road bridges constructed in Victoria during the late 19th/early 20th centuries and because this type of bridge is now rare within the Shire (Criteria B & D).
