Physical Description 1

Wilsleigh is a single storey double fronted Italianate villa, with painted brick walls and a hipped corrugated galvanised steel roof. The front chimney is bi-chrome brick and it is probable that the house is also bi-chrome brick. The rear chimney is red brick and both chimneys have paired terracota chimney pots. The house is a simple design, with a four panel front door flanked by double hung sash windows. The return verandah has turned timber columns and there are decorative brackets under the eave line on the front elevation.
