Statement of Significance

Last updated on - February 16, 2007

A building erected as a pharmacy in 1868 and in continuous use ever since for the same purpose. The classification refers only to the interior, with its superb shop fittings and the vice regal coat-of-arms, which appear to be contemporary with the building.

Classified: 06/04/1978

File Note: As fittings had been dispersed at a recent sale, Classification removed 03/05/1979
