Statement of Significance

Last updated on - February 28, 2008

A small brick church consecrated in 1878 and attributed to the architect C W Maplestone, which is of some interest for the banded bichrome voussoirs and more especially for its extremely close resemblance to Nathaniel Billing's St John's, Cranbourne of 1864-5. Apart from the addition of a vestry in 1892 the building is intact.
