Statement of Significance

Last updated on - February 22, 2022

What is significant?

Built in 1890-91 by Henderson and Marryat, this red brick gatehoue was added by John Grozier to St Albans although subsequent subdivision of the estate has diverted the driveway. The cream brick string courses and trim related the design to that of the main house and the belltower adds a note of distinction. See also File Number 3978 St Albans Homestead.
