Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 1, 2008

The following wording is from the Allom and Lovell Building Citation, 1998 for the property. Please note that this is a "Building Citation", not a "Statement of Significance". For further information refer to the Building Citation held by the City of Yarra.

History:

The Davis' Pickle and Sauce Factory was built in 1925 for Solomon and Maurice Davis. In 1925, Rupert Street was predominantly residential. In 1922, the wooden houses at Nos. 81-93 were acquired by S and M Davis; at this time, their values ranged from ?28 to ?34. In 1925, the houses at Nos. 85, 87-89, 91 and 93 were demolished: the Davis' are listed as owners of vacant land. The Rate Books of 1925-26 show S & M Davis as the owners of a brick factory valued at ?190. They retained ownership of the adjacent 4 room wooden houses at Nos. 81 and 83.

Description:

The former Davis' Pickle and Sauce Factory, 89 Rupert Street, Collingwood, is a single storey brick industrial building. The symmetrical facade is of face red brick, and has a series of multi-paned steel-framed hopper windows and single door openings between shallow brick piers and beneath a moulded string course. Four piers extend through to the parapet, which has a wide central gabled pediment with rendered moulded copings, flanked by panelled sections with a circular motifs; all have flat, rendered decoration.

Significance:

The former Davis' Pickle and Sauce Factory, 89 Rupert Street, Collingwood, is of local architectural significance. It is a good and substantially intact example of a decorated industrial building in a late Edwardian style, which makes a positive contribution to a mixed industrial streetscape.
