History

Heritage Inventory History of Site: The site was used as a native Police Headquarters and an Aboriginal Protectorate Station from 1837 to 1853. The site's early history is described by Marie Fels in "The Dandenong Police Paddocks", (CFL, 1986) and "Good Men and True" (Melbourne University Press, 1988). The site was subsequently used as the Victoria Police Stud Depot from 1853 to 1931. Since then it has been used as a public purposes reserve for, among other things, grazing, a military camp and for scouting.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
