Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 1, 2008

The following wording is from the Allom and Lovell Building Citation, 1998 for the property. Please note that this is a "Building Citation", not a "Statement of Significance". For further information refer to the Building Citation held by the City of Yarra.

History:

In 1891 William Kenneley occupied a diary on this site. By 1904 Albert Williams was in residence here, and by 1912 the occupant was Jno Cordwell.

Description:

51 Keele Street is a two-storey building of brick construction with a ruled rendered finish. The ground floor entrance is located within a semi-circular arched porch, and windows are double hung sashes with simple rendered dressings. Above the first floor cornice is a pediment, flanked by scrolls.

Significance:

51 Keele Street is of local architectural significance. The building is a surviving example of a 19th century small industrial building, combining a diary and residence. The building is of a typical terrace form, with modest ornamentation.
