
Major Mitchell Memorial, intersection of Bolangum Inn and Kanya Roads, KANYA

KA 03 - Shire of Northern
Grampians - Stage 2 Heritage
Study, 2004

Location

intersection of Bolangum and Kanya Roads KANYA, NORTHERN GRAMPIANS SHIRE

Municipality

NORTHERN GRAMPIANS SHIRE

Level of significance

Recommended for Heritage Overlay

Heritage Listing

Northern Grampians Shire

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - July 31, 2004

The Major Mitchell Memorial, intersection of Bolangum Inn and Kanya Roads, Kanya, has significance as a monument to the exploration of this part of Victoria by Major Thomas Mitchell, Surveyor-General of the Colony of N.S.W., and his party, in 1836. This monument forms part of a chain of Mitchell memorials throughout Victoria and, after War Memorials, are the most common form of public commemoration in the region.

The Major Mitchell Memorial, intersection of Bolangum Inn and Kanya Roads, Kanya, is historically and socially significant at a LOCAL level. It is associated with commemorating the expedition through the western plains of Victoria by Major Thomas Mitchell, Surveyor General of the Colony of N.S.W., and his party, in 1836. It also has associations with the district residents of Kanya who erected it in 1936 in celebration of the centenary of the expedition. The Memorial is recognised by the district as a significant legacy of this critical part of early 19th century Australian exploration.

Overall, the Major Mitchell Memorial, intersection of Bolangum Inn and Kanya Roads, Kanya, is of LOCAL significance.

Heritage Study/Consultant	Northern Grampians - Shire of Northern Grampians - Stage 2 Heritage Study, Wendy Jacobs, Vicki Johnson, David Rowe, Phil Taylor, 2004;
Hermes Number	105134
Property Number

Physical Description 1

The Major Mitchell Memorial, intersection of Bolangum Inn and Kanya Roads, Kanya, has a rural bushland setting. The Memorial comprises random stonework forming a broad, rudimentary cairn on an elevated random stone base. Centrally positioned on the lower part of the memorial is a plaque that reads: "The Expedition of Major T.L. Mitchell Camped Here 12th to 16th July 1836. Erected by the District Residents in 1936." Below this plaque is a Bicentennial plaque that reads: "Accurate mapping of Major Thomas Mitchell's expedition has revealed that he camped about 2.5 km south of here on 11 July, 1836. Major Mitchell's expedition into the 'Australia Felix' is commemorated by the Major Mitchell Trail, an Australian Bicentennial project with financial assistance from the Commonwealth and Victorian Governments."

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>