History

Heritage Inventory History of Site: Sluicing in this area began in February 1862 when Cornelius Donovan and his party commenced operations on Donovans Creek. By 1863 it was estimated there were 300 to 400 workers in the region. Some features of Browns Camp may date from this early period. Source: MMBW, "A Brief History of the Upper Yarra", 1981.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
