History

Heritage Inventory History of Site: The post office was built around the turn of the century, certainly before 1910. The site was a stopoff for Cobb & Co coaches, also serviced the local community, probably until the 1950s. After this, the building fell into a state of ruin until it was razed by fire in the late 1970s.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
