Statement of Significance

Last updated on - August 27, 2004

The brick house at 17 Seaby Street, Stawell is of aesthetic significance at a CONTRIBUTORY level in the Stawell Seaby Street precinct. Although altered the building retains qualities of the characteristic inter war brick house. These qualities include the hipped roof clad in terra cotta tiles, the verandah being included under the main house roof, the exposed rafters and boarded eaves lining, the use of clinker and bands of red brick and rendered lintels and the rendered chimney with face clinker brick solder course and capping.
