Statement of Significance

Last updated on - August 27, 2004

'Taranaki', 18 Seaby Street, Stawell, is of aesthetic significance at a CONTRIBUTORY level in the Stawell Seaby Street precinct. Although altered the building retains qualities of a characteristic Victorian brick house. These qualities include the stone base walls, brick walls, hipped M form roof clad in corrugated steel, the brick chimneys with rendered bands and brick dentils and the retained timber double hung windows.
