Statement of Significance

Last updated on - August 27, 2004

The house at 45 Smith Street, Stawell is of aesthetic significance at a CONTRIBUTORY level in the Stawell Seaby Street precinct. The building retains qualities of a characteristic Victorian timber house. These qualities include the multiple gable roofs both parallel and transverse, clad in corrugated steel, the decorative fretwork gable barge board, the straight pitched hipped front verandah roof supported on timber posts, the external brick chimneys, the square edged weatherboard wall cladding, the timber front door, the double hung and triple light timber windows.
