Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

It appears that the timber cottage at 10 Glenelg Street dates from between 1853 - 57. The 1857 ratebook lists the site as "cottage and garden; W.M. Douglas, owner, Mrs. McCarthy, occupant." The simply composed double fronted cottage with its simple line shows characteristics dating from the late nineteenth century and forms a cohesive group with the neighbouring cottage, No.8 Glenelg Street. The rear outbuilding is also noteworthy.
