Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

The complex of buildings at 21 Hurd Street comprising timber cottage (erected 1862), ruined cottage and stables (erected c.1855) form a most distinctive residential group and date from early times. The cottage and stables are recorded in the 1857 Ratebook as "House, Stable and Garden owned and occupied by Geo Wright." The timber cottage was first mentioned in the 1862 Ratebook.
