Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

The two storey premises at 58A Julia Street was erected in 1851 for Messrs. Denny & Co. and Croker and Co., and was used for warehouse purposes. In 1859, Lord, Croaker and Co., acquired this utilitarian structure built of local bricks with fine axed basalt quoins and window reveals in a distinctive colonial style. The building is one of the oldest of its type in Victoria. The fine combination of brick and stone is a distinctive feature of the building and contrasts with Henry's warehouses of similar date at 6 - 12 Julia Street.
