Heritage Inventory History of Site:

BAND OF HOPE CO., Happy Valley; No. 6 or Smythesdale Division

12.1869: one of three companies that has taken up the ground at the junction of the Old Springdallah and Happy Valley Leads; the only one of the three that has the resources to test the ground.

01.1868 to 03.1868: recorded production of 130 oz 19 dwt 17 gr , or 4.074 kg.

SPRINGDALLAH JUNCTION CO., Happy Valley; No. 6 or Smythesdale Division

12.1878: giving steady returns.

03.1879: paying well.

03.1880: giving its usual yield.

06.1881: this and the Waverley Co. are the only deep lead companies working at Happy Valley at this time.

03.1882: doing fairly well.

The historical information suggests that this is more likely to be the site of the Springdallah Junction Co., although the use of local stone for machinery suggests an earlier date.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
