Statement of Significance

Last updated on -

King & Godfree's serviced the wider Melbourne community. In 1896 it employed 30 workers and ran 9 delivery carts to transport goods to customers who lived up to 20 miles beyond Preston. It supplied a variety of goods including maize oil, olive oil, salt herrings & smoked salmon- illustrating its supply of 2 trades: a 'top' trade and the local trade. Ground floor modified July 1972.
