

FORMER BALD HILLS HOTEL SITE

Location

2-70 MOUNT AITKEN ROAD DIGGERS REST, MELTON SHIRE

Municipality

MELTON CITY

Level of significance

Heritage Inventory Site

Heritage Inventory (HI) Number

H7822-2280

Heritage Listing

Victorian Heritage Inventory

Interpretation of Site	Evidence of former gold rush hotel site.
Archaeological Significance	The Former Bald Hills Hotel site is of low - medium archaeological significance. Parts of the site have been destroyed and ground disturbance around the tank and brick scatter is high. The site has the potential to provide further information about goldfields hotels and the development of services to support/ take advantage of passing gold fields traffic during the mid 19th century.
Historical Significance	The site is of local historical significance as a gold rush period hotel developed to meet the needs of travellers on their way to the goldfields. The site is also an important part of the development of Diggers Rest as the town grew around the establishment of hotel services.
Other Names	MILLETT'S HOTEL,
Hermes Number	124220
Property Number

History

Site of former Bald Hills hotel constructed during the gold rush period to service traffic on the way to the goldfields. Later became Millett's Hotel.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>