Veterans Description for Public

This Wirraway aircraft was dumped into Port Phillip Bay on 8 August 1959. In the Australian context, the Wirraway (Aboriginal for challenge) served as a trainer and communications aircraft until 1959. Today, Wirraways can be found at Bull Creek, WA, the Australian War Memorial, Moorabbin Air Museum and the RAAF Museum. Several more are under restoration.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
