Veterans Description for Public

The Williamstown Memorial was officially dedicated on Armistice Day, 1924 to commemorate the First World War. Designed by RJ Wilson of Geelong, it was constructed by HB Corben at a cost of £1,500. The Harcourt granite facing replaced the intended basalt and Barrabool Hills Freestone with brickwork backing. It features three bluestone steps on a Greek Cross of reinforced concrete with a bronze laurel wreath on the face above the words "Lest We Forget". Names of those who gave the Supreme Sacrifice are given in lead letters on front and sides. The flagpoles were added later as a memorial to the Second World War.

The view of the Monument is framed by two Lombardy poplars and the Second World War flagpoles, providing an appropriate formal setting. The memorial occupies a prominent position at the intersection of two key streets, it terminates the vista looking down Ferguson Street toward the sea.
