Physical Description 1

Bandiana Storehouse 30 is a small skillion-roof shed raised on timber and concrete stumps, and is a quarter of the size of one of the standard store sheds. It is located near the western corner of Storehouse 10. There are visible rail lines running past the NW side of this shed, and past the other store sheds in the group.

Veterans Description for Public

Bandiana Storehouse 30 is a small skillion-roof shed raised on timber and concrete stumps, and is a quarter of the size of one of the standard store sheds. It is located near the western corner of Storehouse 10. There are visible rail lines running past the NW side of this shed, and past the other store sheds in the group. Bandiana Storehouse 30 looks like an ad-hoc shed built during or soon after the 1942 mass construction program.
