
Portland Drill Hall

Location

Bentnick Street, PORTLAND VIC 3305 - Property No B6739

Municipality

GLENELG SHIRE

Level of significance

-

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - October 11, 2006

What is significant? How is it significant? Why is it significant?

The Portland Drill Hall is a single storey, weatherboard building constructed in 1887 - 1888, is of State historical significance as the only building of this type in Victoria with a gun shed that was used for gun drill.

Constructed for the Portland detachment of the Victorian Mounted Rifle Regiment, the building has played an important role in the defence history of the region, and it has been used for community purposes over the years.

Hermes Number 126020

Property Number

Veterans Description for Public

The Portland Drill Hall is a single storey, weatherboard building constructed between 1887 - 1888. It is the only building of this type in Victoria with a gun shed that was used for gun drill. Constructed for the Portland detachment of the Victorian Mounted Rifle Regiment, the building has played an important role in the defence history of the region and provided a space for community purposes over the years.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>