Veterans Description for Public

The Benalla RAAF Airfield and Camp, on Samaria Road, date from the Second World War. RAAF establishments were built throughout country Victoria during the war. The site was compulsorily acquired on 18th September 1941; it was utilised as an elementary flying school, then after the war as a camp by the Department of Immigration. The site currently houses flying clubs.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
