Veterans Description for Public

The Sale Drinking Fountain, located in the rose garden on the corner of Foster and York Streets, was erected in 1909 to commemorate the Boer War. The foundation stone was laid by Walter Lyon on 29th October. A later plaque was unveiled by Boer War Veteran C.E.T. Kelley on April 25th 1972, to mark the monument's relocation.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
