Veterans Description for Public

Branxholme Memorial Gates consist of four pillars and wrought iron gates which serve as an entranceway to the Recreation Reserve. The gates were erected to commemorate the First World War and the Second World War. On either side of the gate, a row of English Oaks (Quercus robur) forms a memorial planting. Immediately inside the gates to the reserve is a single memorial planting marked by a plaque dedicated to those who fell in the First World War.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
