
Bright Memorial Gates

Bright 6.jpg

Location

Gavin Street BRIGHT, ALPINE SHIRE

Municipality

ALPINE SHIRE

Level of significance

-

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

Hermes Number 126486

Property Number

Physical Description 1

Rustic stone pillars with ornamental wrought iron gates, ornamental lanterns. On the 11th November 1951 these gates were officially unveiled by Mrs Margaret Lumsden representing families of the fallen in World War Two, 1939 - 1945. The gates were a gift of public donation to the Bright Progressive Association.

Historical Australian Themes

Remembering the fallen

Usage/Former Usage

Commemoration

Veterans Description for Public

The Bright Memorial Gates are located in Centenary Park, on Gavin Street. The memorial comprises of four rustic stone pillars with ornamental wrought iron gates, lanterns and the inscription "Lest We Forget." The construction of the gates was funded by public donation and then gifted to the Bright Progressive Association. On 11th November 1951, they were officially unveiled by Mrs Margaret Lumsden who represented families who had lost relatives in the Second World War.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>