Veterans Description for Public

The Cavendish WWII Memorial is located in the park near the Memorial Hall, on the north east corner of Scott and Barker Streets. The monument comprises of a tapering pylon of six dark grey granite blocks. It has two hollowed granite planter boxes at the sides and two shallow bluestone steps in front. Below a simple incised and gilded cross there is a dedicatory inscription to those who served from Cavendish and district during the Second World War, with a list of eight names below. The lettering is also gilded. The memorial is placed diagonally in the north-west corner of the park.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
