Veterans Description for Public

The Chatsworth War Memorial is situated in a small reserve in the centre of the now relatively dormant township of Chatsworth, at a site known locally as 'Fiveways.' The memorial comprises of an obelisk dedicated to those who fought in the First World War and was erected c.1920s. The Memorial is enclosed with a wire fence but is unfortunately in poor condition.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
