Veterans Description for Public

The Berwick Grammar School Honour Avenue was planted on June 15th 1919 to commemorate the lives of former pupils who died serving in the First World War. The Avenue was planted by 50 Grammaroldboys and consists of seven Oak trees (Quercus palustris, Quercus robur) located on the west side of Church Street, between Palmerston and Brisbane streets. The trees remain in excellent condition.

Outside the former Grammar Schoolbuilding (now a private residence) is a small tablet listing the names of the boys who died serving: E. D'A Brunn, H.O. Elmes, E.G. Gaunt, S.Hodgson, H.I. Hope, A.E. Kent, C.H. Lyon, A.H. Miller and A.M. Robin.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.
