

Chiltern War Memorial Gates

Chilt 2.jpg

Chilt 1.jpg

Chilt 3.jpg

Chilt 4.jpg

Chilt 5.jpg

Location

Conness Street, Chiltern VIC 3683

Municipality

INDIGO SHIRE

Level of significance

—

Heritage Overlay Numbers

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 1, 2002

These small public gardens are significant for their role as war memorial. They are an important reminder of the devastating losses suffered by many country towns and are a focus for commemorative events. Local significance [Criteria A & G]

Heritage Study/Consultant Indigo - Indigo Shire Heritage Study, Peter Freeman Pty Ltd, 2002;

Hermes Number 127112

Property Number

Physical Description 1

The gardens are entered through masonry pillars which have been stuccoed. They are inscribed with the words "Lest We Forget", and contain plaques honouring 53 fallen district servicemen from World Wars I and II. There are two gates made from a popular wrought iron pattern. The fence is concrete posts with wire mesh commensurate in age and style with the gates.

Historical Australian Themes

8.8 Remembering the fallen

Veterans Description for Public

The Chiltern Memorial Park entranceway comprise of stuccoed masonry pillars, inscribed with the words "Lest We Forget", and plaques honouring 53 fallen servicemen of the First and Second World Wars. The two gates are made from a popular wrought iron pattern while the fence is characterised by concrete posts with wire mesh, which matches in age and style with the gates.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>