
Barnawartha War Memorial

Barn 1.jpg

Barn 2.jpg

Barn 3.jpg

Barn 4.jpg

Barn 5.jpg

Location

High Street BARNAWARTHA, INDIGO SHIRE

Municipality

INDIGO SHIRE

Level of significance

-

Heritage Overlay Numbers

HO229

Heritage Listing

Vic. War Heritage Inventory

Statement of Significance

Last updated on - January 1, 2002

The Barnawartha War Memorial has social significance as a landmark and war memorial and occupies a prominent place in the main street of the town. It is a poignant reminder of the devastating losses suffered by rural Australian communities during the two World Wars. The memorial historical significance as a monument which was constructed utilising stones from the Burrowes flour mill, a massive industrial building which dominated the Barnawartha streetscape until it was destroyed during the 1952 bushfires. Local significance [Criteria A & G]

Heritage Study/Consultant	Indigo - Indigo Shire Heritage Study, Peter Freeman Pty Ltd, 2002;
Construction dates	1953,
Hermes Number	127176
Property Number

Physical Description 1

The memorial is a stone obelisk, on a stepped concrete plinth. To the front boundary there is a stone and concrete fence and wrought iron gate. The main brass plaque reads 'To the honour and in memory of our men who paid the supreme sacrifice 1914-18 - 1939-45, Greater love hath no man'. Brass plaques to the side elevations list the names of those who died in 'The Great War 1914-18' [8 names] and 'World War II 1939-45' [10 names].

Historical Australian Themes

8.8 Remembering the fallen

Veterans Description for Public

The Barnawartha War Memorial, on High Street, comprises of a stone obelisk mounted on a stepped concrete plinth. To the front boundary there is a stone and concrete fence and wrought iron gate. The main brass plaque reads 'To the honour and in memory of our men who paid the supreme sacrifice 1914-18 - 1939-45, Greater love hath no man'. Brass plaques to the side elevations list the names of those who died in 'The Great War 1914-18' (8 names) and 'World War II 1939-45' (10 names).

The Barnawartha War Memorial has social significance as a landmark and war memorial and occupies a prominent place in the main street of the town. It is a poignant reminder of the devastating losses suffered by rural Australian communities during the two World Wars. The memorial was constructed utilising stones from the Burrowes flour mill, a massive industrial building which dominated the Barnawartha streetscape until it was destroyed during the 1952 bushfires.

This place/object may be included in the Victorian Heritage Register pursuant to the Heritage Act 2017. Check the Victorian Heritage Database, selecting 'Heritage Victoria' as the place source.

For further details about Heritage Overlay places, contact the relevant local council or go to Planning Schemes Online <http://planningschemes.dpcd.vic.gov.au/>