Statement of Significance

Last updated on - April 7, 2003

Cottage possibly dates to 1870s and has some local significance.

Interpretation of Site

The archaeological features possibly relate to a former structure either attached to or immediately adjacent to the bluestone cottage. This cottage is thought to date to 1870s. Property has been subdivided as part of Bluestone Views Estate.

Archaeological Significance

While sheds and stockyards have been removed as part of the development, the cottage retains original fabric and may contain occupation deposits under floors and surrounding the cottage relating to its 1870s occupation.

Historical Significance

Site is of local historical significance as an example of early settlement of the Epping area.
